Committee Reports:

CFC - Molly reported that she is taking an email survey of the women who now take a meeting to the jail on Monday nights inquiring if they would like to take a meeting twice a week. She is going to survey the men also. Molly has received a request from a man who is being released from jail to the Plymouth area on March 13 . She asked for anyone who might have a contact in that area. Kim suggested she contact Wayne Smith at Fellowship Hal.

TFC - Jackie. Regarding Daymark, there is now a 10 a.m. speaker meeting on Sunday. District 23 is responsible for the first and third Sundays; High Point is responsible for the second and fourth Sundays. There are also meetings on Monday and Wednesday. Jackie reported that she has formed a small committee to help coordinate the Treatment Facility Committee. As of now it consists of Jackie, Kim, Randy, James and Amanda who volunteered at the District Meeting. The Cone meeting at 8 p.m. needs more women. Finally Thomas is to coordinate between Jackie and Sam with regard to Jackie's email being connected to TFC.

CPC/PI - Sheila - Absent

Special Events - Rucker has been approached by Gordon R. To have a Big Book Study sometime in late April, early May to be conducted through District 23 and Special Events. He will have more information next month.

Grapevine - Dan continues to encourage groups to subscribe to the Grapevine. He said that there is to be a Subscription Contest Challenge for each Area in the country. The Area with the most subscriptions will win the right to have their stories published in the Grapevine in 2016.

Website Report - Thomas reported downloads at 106; Hotsheet at 79, and total views at 2820, which comes to approximately 90 times a day.

Special Needs - Sharon. No report

Intergroup - Lisa. Jim reported that all is relatively quiet. He did say they need more names for the telephone list (those who are willing to take calls for help which go to Intergroup). He also said that the commemorative medallion for the 2015 International Convent is available.
