WHO

All AA members

WHAT

“My name is... and I’m an alcoholic’ - It’s a phrase heard in A.A. meetings around the world. But where does it come from? Why do we say it? And should we keep doing so? Surely, identification is an important concept in A.A. In fact, it could be considered the keystone of the program’s entire philosophy: one alcoholic helping another. Yet, as a Fellowship with lots of suggestions, but no official rules, must a person declare, as many do when introducing themselves at meetings, that he or she is an alcoholic?”
