Treatment Facilities (TFC) - Della

- No changes to the below update from last month due to COVID
 - We are continuing with Friday night 8pm meetings for now. The meetings have been going very well with no issues in finding people wanting service work.
 - Given the increase in Covid cases, Cone has limited their visitors again so no additional time slots have been opened.
 - Della has connected with someone in the new Cone Behavioral Urgent care center and they are interested in meeting in late October with the expectation that the Covid situation will have improved. I will meet with both the new Urgent center and the Behavioral Health center representatives at the same time. They requested information about online/zoom meetings during specific time slots of the day/evening which I have provided to them. Hopefully they are continuing to leverage online meetings while in-person meetings are not available.
 - We will continue to monitor the progress of the Friday meetings and update on possible opening for additional meetings at both facilities.

Web & Technology – Mariah:

- The NC23.org website analytics show 5,860 sessions and 2,173 users last month, mostly accessed via mobile device.

There were a few technical difficulties but much as been transferred over and looking forward to the year. Send or resend an email to Mariah, the committee chairperson, if you know or suspect that you do not have access to the nc23.org emails and/or accounts. LCM Report: Jennifer has been visiting Groups and gathering information about when their business meetings are held so that she can visit business meetings to encourage the Group to participate in District meetings.

DCM Report – Kimberly

- Consider attending the Service Nerds meeting on Wednesday evenings. It's a great way to understand the service structure and become familiar with terms and processes that GSRs may encounter in their service. The meeting uses the service manual and reviews the 12 Concepts of Service. Cross talk is welcome. See <https://nc23.org/meetings/service-nerds> for other meeting details.
