She is waiting to hear from Westminster and Pisgah Church Methodist as to what Saturdays would be available for monthly workshops. She hopes for the last Saturday of each month from 9 to 11. Karen is forming a committee to coordinate these workshops and anyone interested can contact her at 336-202-1742. As of now the first workshop will be titled Home Group and will be a panel discussion.

Grapevine: Open Position

Website: Josh. Absent. Sam said there were 4600 views on our website. He reported that HTTP has been found by Google and others to be unsafe and as that is the basis of our website, we are going to have to switch to SSL sometime this year. Sam is investigating cost of the change and will report back to the District.

Special Needs: Sharon. No requests for aid have been received. However, she reported that the one request we had is successful and the person is receiving the rides needed.

LCM: Roberta. No report. Roberta said she is stepping down and hopefully we can find someone new to take the position.

Alt. DCM: Karen. Asked that the upcoming workshops be announced at meetings. Good service work for those who choose it. She also asked for help on her committee to bring these workshops to reality.

DCM Report: Kim. Distributed several handouts including the General Service Conference Structure; Group Listings (Active, Inactive, Active Unknown); Suggested Questions for a Group Inventory; and the January Minutes. A short discussion followed regarding the handouts.

Kim reminded GSRs that the Area Assembly is May 19-21; and that Preconference is April 8 in Burlington.

Old Business: None

New Business: David brought up the subject of coffee pots which are now on sale at Walmart for $99.00 for 100 cup pot. The money is to come out of Special Events and they can go ahead and purchase.

The next item was a storage unit for Special Event Supplies. There was a long discussion regarding pros and cons of a storage unit. Sharon made a motion that we spend $45 per month and contract for a unit. There was a second. During the discussion Roberta said a member of her home group, Barry, owns a storage facility. Sharon withdrew her motion so that the matter could be tabled until next month when Roberta will have information on the smallest unit available and the monthly cost.
